

Are you motivated to work in an inclusive environment and prioritise the needs of the children, staff and families of Pinelands North Primary School?

Skills and Experience:

Are you passionate about and able to:

Manage and oversee an established multi-disciplinary team, as well as the learning support teachers, teacher intern, facilitators, counsellors and outside therapists and support staff.

- Promote, advocate and grow the already established inclusive ethos at PNPS.
- Present workshops at school and at national and international conferences.
- Promote children's development, needs and school experience.
- Provide emotional and academic support, together with the Deputy Academics, for all staff
- Supporting parents and the broader community in understanding inclusion.

Would you describe yourself as:

- flexible and innovative
- creative and a problem solver
- adaptable and a developer
- relational and relatable

Minimum requirements:

- Degree in Education specialising in psychology or inclusion.
- Online, technology and IT skills.
- Good writing and communication skills.
- Work experience in managing a team and working with a multidisciplinary team.
- A minimum of 4 years class teaching experience.
- Worked in an inclusion school/dept. environment.
- Have varied 'Learning support' skills and theory eg. Narrative therapy, P4C, Reggio Emilia.
- Experience with providing parents with support, advice and strategies
- Counselling or social work experience is advantageous.
- Conflict and medication skills essential.
- Understands WCED processes